Greetings...

To the Delegates and Messengers representing our District Associations and Churches from across our great State of Texas. We thank God for traveling grace and arriving mercies.

Welcome to Austin, the Capitol City, and our 110th Annual Session of the Congress of Christian Workers of the Missionary Baptist General Convention of Texas! We are blessed by God to gather once again for this week intentionally set aside for education, empowerment, and worship. We pray your time this week will be a reminder of the importance of being trained and prepared for the eternally significant work of God's Kingdom.

I am truly thankful for our esteemed State Convention President, Pastor William T. Glynn, for his trust and the opportunity to serve our grand Convention in this capacity. Thank you to our Convention Officers and Staff for your tireless effort to ensure everything runs smoothly. Thank you to our Congress Staff for your hard work all year to get us to this moment. Thank you Pastor DeChard Freeman, Dr. Desirae Hendricks-Patterson, and our YAYA Convention Staff and volunteers for their love for and faithfulness to the youth and children of our Convention. I am grateful for the support of Moderator Mays and our St. John Regular Baptist District Association, along with Dr. McClendon and St. James Baptist Church, Dr. Parker and David Chapel Baptist Church, and Dr. Robertson and Ebenezer Third Baptist Church.

To my Mt. Zion Baptist Church Family, God Bless You! Thank you for being disciples who help us to be the Lord's Church who C.A.R.E.S. to B.L.E.S.S. people. To my wife Dr. Shalonda Horton and daughter Eshana, thank you for your prayers and navigating life's journey with me. To my entire family, thank you for your continued prayers, love, and support.

In His Service,

Rev. Dr. Daryl Horton
